

American Academy of Neurological and Orthopaedic Surgeons

Recommended qualifications for candidates being considered as the next Vice Chairperson of the Board

Vice Chairperson of the Board (Vice President)

As stipulated in Article VII Section 6 of the Bylaws, “The candidate for Vice Chairperson of the Board who will be elected in even years at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, shall be nominated from among the members of the Executive Committee by the Nominating Committee of the American Academy of Neurological and Orthopaedic Surgeons.” and “Candidates for Vice Chairperson of the Board shall; be actively board certified, have served as a member of the Board of Directors for the past four (4) continuous years, have served on the Executive Committee as Secretary or Treasurer for at least one term within the past four (4) years, and have been an active dues paying member of the AANOS for at least six (6) years.” Only candidates properly vetted by the Nominating Committee and presented to the Board of Directors for election will be considered during the Board of Directors meeting.

Qualifications for other Executive Committee positions that the Nominating Committee may recommend

Secretary

Directors who are interested in the position of Secretary of the Academy should have served one term previously in an Executive Committee position. While not mandatory, the experience gained will be invaluable to successfully carrying out the duties of this position. Candidates shall be actively board certified, have served as a member of the Board of Directors for the past two (2) continuous years and have been an active dues paying member of the AANOS for at least four (4) years.

Treasurer

Directors who are interested in the position of Treasurer of the Academy should have served one term previously in an Executive Committee position. While not mandatory, the experience gained will be invaluable to successfully carrying out the duties of this position. Candidates shall be actively board certified, have served as a member of the Board of Directors for the past two (2) continuous years and have been an active dues paying member of the AANOS for at least four (4) years.

Additional Executive Committee Member

There shall be two (2) additional directors elected to the Executive Committee. These positions will hold the title, “Executive Committee Member” and have a term of office consistent with the other positions on the Executive Committee. The only requirement for this position is being a member of the Board of Directors for at least one (1) full year prior to being nominated. While the Nominating Committee is encouraged to make recommendations for these positions based on applications received, they can also be filled by the Chairperson under whom they will serve within 30 days of the Chairperson’s assumption of office.
